37.21 TO RECEIVE UPDATE FROM VH & RG.

A reply was received in relation to questions forwarded from the last meeting, with the VH providing what information they had on the boundary of the recreation ground. Due to the number of individual gates and fences erected to properties at the rear of Pottinger Gardens, the clerk was tasked with contacting ACIS for clarification of boundary ownership. Additionally, the councillors requested a copy of the Village Hall Constitution for information only. The clerk was tasked with contacting the insurers, to make enquiries regarding additional insurance for the recreation ground, along with the Charities Commission for more information on named Trustees of the proposed separation of the VH & RG Charity. Proposed Cllr. K. Smith, seconded Cllr. J. Connolly.

38.21 TO NOMINATE REPLACEMENT REPRESENTATIVE – VILLAGE HALL COMMITTEE

DEFERRED UNTIL SEPTEMBER 2021.

39.21 TO DISCUSS DEFIBRILLATOR MAINTENANCE SCHEME – WLDC.

The clerk forwarded information from WLDC offering a yearly scheme, for £100 to maintain all aspects of the defib. (includes VAT) After discussions the councillors proposed to opt in to the scheme. Proposed Cllr. Smith, Seconded Cllr. Connolly. Cllr. Clark commented on the viability of an additional defibrillator, after residents had approached him following a recent incident at the recreation ground, with offers of fund raising towards the purchase of a second unit. It was proposed to contact the VH & RG Committee in the first instance, to ask if they would be prepared to purchase a new unit, which the parish council would then offer to maintain each year. Proposed Cllr. Clark, seconded Cllr. Bates.
